RAFQA'S famous reputation of holiness during her life, increased the more after her death, and was reaffirmed again and again as days passed by witnessing the numerous miracles and signs granted by God to his people, through her intercession. Thus, her canonization process was launched, and committees were formed by the appropriate Church's authorities to examine her way of holiness, in the year 1926. In the year 1968, Jun 1st, Pope Paul VI signed the papers of her canonization process. And when the work of the second phase of her canonization ended, Pope John Paul II ordered that a résumé about her heroic virtues be published in February 11th 1982. Toward the end of the third phase of her canonization, the pope scheduled November 17th, 1985 as the day of declaring her an Beatified, and in Jun 10th, 2001, Pope John Paul II announced her a Saint for the Universal (Catholic) Church. May her prayers be with us. Amen.

The Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary is related in Luke 1:26-38.

The Evangelist tells us that in the sixth month after the conception of St. John the Baptist by Elizabeth, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to the Virgin Mary, at Nazareth, a small town in the mountains of Galilee. Mary was of the house of David, and was espoused (i.e. married) to Joseph, of the same royal family. She had, however, not yet entered the household of her spouse, but was still in her mother's house, working, perhaps, over her dowry. The Annunciation is the beginning of Jesus in His human nature. Through His mother He is a member of the human race.
