SPIRITUAL MESSAGE

“At the moment of death only love will count”

Every person is a lamp of God. His task is to be a light in the darkness. God created every lamp with a clear, transparent window, through which the light may shine and illuminate the darkness of the world. Yet we forget about the light and care only for the window. We color it, we decorate it, and it becomes clouded and dim, no longer allowing the light to shine through. That is why the world finds itself plunged in so much darkness. The windows of our lamps must once again become clear and transparent, that our light may shine out to the world. That is why every time we fall into sin, we must go to Confession, that we may remain in a state of sanctifying grace.
