OUR LADY OF PEACE MARONITE CATHOLIC PARISH OF CALGARY

DONATIONS SUMMARY (October 21, 2018)

6th SUNDAY OF THE HOLY CROSS SEASON COLLECTION: $709.05

The parable invites us to use as best as possible, for the benefit of the people around us, the talents we have received. We should not reach the end of our lives and say to the Lord: Here I give you the heart that you gave me; I used it very little so as not to make mistakes. The dream you entrusted to me, I return to you as you have given me. She is almost new, she has never served. The judgment will be about the fruits we have produced: "I have chosen you to produce fruit and your fruit to remain."

In life, we need to have the courage to take risks. Jesus was very hard on the Pharisees who prevented any change and wanted to "erect a fence around the Law and the traditions of Israel" to protect them. Christianity is not a museum religion. We must avoid extinguishing the Spirit "who blows wherever He wants and continually renews the face of the earth".

At the end of our life, a simple question will be asked: "Is the little world entrusted to us by God more beautiful, warmer, more just and more human because we have been there?" Then Christ will say, "He is a good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of your Lord."

"SPIRITUAL MESSAGE"

JESUS CHRIST, OUR KING

The phrase king of kings is used in Scripture six times. Once, the title is applied to God the Father (1 Timothy 6:15), and twice to the Lord Jesus (Revelation 17:14; 19:16). The other three (Ezra 7:12; Ezekiel 26:7; Daniel 2:37) refer to either Artaxerxes or Nebuchadnezzar, kings who used the phrase to express their absolute sovereignty over their respective realms (Persia and Babylon). The phrase lord of lords is used by itself in Scripture twice and refers to God the Father (Deuteronomy 10:17; Psalm 136:3).
